

Wisconsin's No Call List has been a welcome addition for the consumers of our State. It should in no way be weakened/threatened by the efforts of a few businesses seeking to invade our privacy once again. You don't know how peaceful it has been not having to answer unwanted and unsolicited phone calls. I don't appreciate being rudely interrupted by businesses I have no intention of dealing with.